

Citation Guides

Basic Citation Builders

BibMe: Citation maker. <http://www.bibme.org/>

NCSU's Citation Builder: This tool provides a quick way to help you correctly format citations in MLA, APA, and CBE/CSE formats. Just enter the basic information, and the Citation Builder will create a citation that you can copy and paste into your document.

<http://www.lib.ncsu.edu/lobo2/citationbuilder/citationbuilder.php>

EasyBib: Great resource for MLA Citation style. Other styles are available at a cost. Put in the citation information and it creates the citation for you. www.easybib.com

KnightCite: Another MLA citation building site <http://www.calvin.edu/library/knightcite/>

eTurabian: MLA and Turabian citation generator. <http://www.eturabian.com/turabian/index.html>

Son of Citation Machine: Citation Generator for MLA, APA, Turabian, and Chicago Manual Style.

<http://citationmachine.net/>

Browser Citation Management Tools

CiteULike: Free to anyone. It can be used with any web browser. It allows you to store and share citations via the internet. It does not provide a tool for creating bibliographies!

<http://www.rmu.edu/web/cms/academics/library/research-assistance/Pages/citation-management.aspx>

Connotea: A free, online tool for organizing and sharing your references. It does not provide a tool for creating bibliographies: <http://www.connotea.org/>

Zotero: A Firefox extension that lets you collect, manage, and cite your resources:

<http://www.zotero.org/>

Databases

21st Century Information Fluency: Online Citation Wizards: Includes wizards for MLA, APA, and CSE:

<http://www.21cif.imsa.edu/tools/citation/>

Digital Research Tools Wiki (DiRT) A compilation of citation management tools for MLA, APA, Turabian, and Chicago Styles: <http://digitalresearchtools.pbworks.com/Citation-Management-Tools>

NoodleTools: citation management software for students and teachers: <http://www.noodletools.com/>

Online Manuals

Chicago Manual of Style Online: <http://www.chicagomanualofstyle.org/home.html>